I provide my clients with peace of mind by reaching a resolution to their difficult separation

Chad is a partner in the Family Law group. He provides advice and support to clients in a range of matters, including:

- Parenting
- Custody
- Matrimonial property
- Common law division of property
- Estate disputes

He is committed to helping clients through their divorce or separation and with the challenges families face throughout this emotional process.

Chad was recognized by The Best Lawyers in Canada for work in Family Law. He is based at our southeast office but is happy to meet at the downtown office.

Education

1999 University of Saskatchewan, LLB

1996 University of British Columbia, BA

Admission

2005 Alberta

2002 Ontario

Experience

Chad provides mediation services to help couples navigate difficult separations. Mediation is a fair and amicable process designed to jointly resolve a couple's parenting and property issues after a separation. The process of mediation avoids the costs of litigation and the inherent conflict that often results from being in court.
