My goal is to see clients to recovery as quickly as possible, and protect against insurance and defence tactics.

Since articling with McLeod Law in 1999, Matthew has developed a specialized practice in the Personal Injury group. He primarily represents plaintiffs but also acts for the defence on behalf of the Alberta Government when lawsuits are brought against unknown persons or persons without insurance. As a result, he has extensive knowledge and experience from both perspectives. Matthew has appeared before the Provincial and King's Bench levels of Court in Alberta.

Matthew is recognized by The Best Lawyers in Canada for work in Insurance Law and Personal Injury Litigation. Clients have highly recommended Matthew on Martindale-Hubbell.com.
