I'm proud to assist my clients in creating great places for Calgarians to live and work.

At McLeod Law, Robin is a partner in our Real Estate group and managing partner. His practice focuses on residential and commercial real estate and involves the purchase, sale, financing, and development of properties throughout Alberta. Additionally, Robin advises a number of significant clients focused on single and multifamily development, hospitality, and rental properties. He also represents financial institutions and buyers and sellers of commercial and residential properties.

Robin is one of McLeod Law's representatives to TAGLaw—a global alliance of law firms—regularly advising clients outside of Alberta on complex commercial real estate matters, and also acting as a legal concierge, connecting clients with the right lawyer when they need legal counsel in another province, the U.S., or globally.
