Honest and clear two-way communication is the backbone of a solid lawyer-client relationship.

Torri is an associate in the Wills, Estates and Trusts group. Her practice includes estate planning, estate administration, trust planning, and guardianship and trusteeship matters.

She works with clients to develop their unique estate planning needs to reflect their intentions, ensuring that their wishes are understood and conveyed in their planning documents to provide for a smooth transition for their loved ones in difficult times. She also assists clients with the estate administration process, including the application for Grant of Probate or Administration.

Well-versed in Adult Guardianship and Trusteeship applications, she also assists with related matters.

After articling at McLeod Law, she continued with the firm following her call to the bar in 2021 and has since worked exclusively in the Wills, Trusts and Estates department. Before law school, she studied Law and Society at the University of Calgary and worked at Calgary Legal Guidance.

Outside the office, she enjoys spending time in the mountains, golfing, and being at the hockey rink.
